QUICKSUMMARY

- I am a beginner level full stack developer with 4+ years of ASP.NET MVC Experience
- 3+ years of experience in angular and 2+ years of experience in React and Vue.
- I worked on front end and have good exposure to handle Angular with Typescript, Bootstrap based css designs.
- I am also good with .NET Core and built REST API that I can consume in Angular.
- I worked with popular SaaS frameworks like ASP.NET Boilerplate and ASP.NET Zero and implemented a simple invoicing application using it.
- My strengths are my attitude, ability to learn technical things quickly based on existing code base and online references and openness and curiosity to learn new things.
- My weaknesses are my communication and the areas that I still need exposures like source control practices, understanding complex requirements and planning strategic approach towards the assigned task.
- I am around good mentors to come over my weaknesses and perform as expected.
