Experience

Certified Codeable Expert (Contractor) at Codeable

May 2015 - Present (1 year 7 months)

Codeable is a WordPress focused freelance agency, that takes pride in it's filtering process of Freelancers that makes sure, that only the best WordPress developers get through and the small number of developers on it amidst so many tasks speaks for itself. Major task here involves talking to client regarding their issues and estimating tasks based on the communication that was involved. Once estimated and approved by client, I get down to business with the WordPress issues to make sure, my clients always have a good feeling, when we are done with the task.
