

Mr Azeem is a successful businessman and working in OziTechnology as a Chairman. He has over twenty years of experience in product management and Firmware development in Shenzhen's high-tech industry. Prior to this, he worked with Japanese in the embedded core products and travel the transition from PowerPC chips to Arm's core processors. He has led many successful ventures and spread the setup in more than 5 countries.

His previous ventures are running successfully and have crossed 50 million dollars in revenue. In short, his vast experience and skills help in optimizing operations at OziTechnology.