

A result driven and strong believer in continuous improvement. An experienced project manager with access to a strong and extended network spanning across a number of fields. With over 22 years of experience in Marketing & Business Operations with multinationals and local companies. Possesses extensive experience in understanding and applying business strategies, as well as incorporating the organization's vision in the process. Strong interpersonal communication skills through which ability to effectively communicate and interact with technical and non-technical staff. Has thrived in roles that are team-oriented, as well as being an individual contributor and leveraging exceptional relationship management skills. Traveled extensively in connection of Businesses Nationwide and Internationally to Europe, Far East, and Middle East.