

DAMON BROWN

(VP of Business Development & Programming)

Damon is at the forefront of Technicate through his fundamentalist idea of what a Technology firm should be to the execution of its principles and epitomes. Damon is the head of the programming and development team and has over 16+ years of computer engineering experience. Through his supervisory role, he maintains his lead over the entire development project to ensure tasks are completed per the project timeline. Not only does Damon represent his products as superior and high-quality, he also places his name and reputation as a pre-cursor to all of his professional endeavors. He is the first one to stand behind Technicate products; thus ensuring all work-products of Technicate have the level of quality and craftsmanship expected by our Clients. Damon's qualifications are outlined below:

Qualifications & Areas of Expertise:

Proficiencies

- ⓘ Successfully recognizing the needs and demands of the client
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrate strong communication and IT fluency
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrating an in-depth knowledge of the industry
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrate irrefutable problem solving skills
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrating the ability to handle pressure and accuracy in meeting deadlines
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrating skills in prioritizing company obligations
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrating a strong attention to detail
- ⓘ Successfully demonstrating effective time management and organization skills

Technologies

Damon is proficient in the following technologies:

- ⓘ HTML 4/5
- ⓘ Mobile, Web Design and Development
- ⓘ Server Applications and Technology Management

Damon is also proficient in the following programming languages:

- ⓘ HTML 4/5
- ⓘ XML
- ⓘ ASP.NET (C#)
- ⓘ PHP
- ⓘ Java (J2EE) Databases: MySQL, Oracle, SQL Server
- ⓘ Linux
- ⓘ Asterisk (VoIP)
- ⓘ Javascript (AJAX)

Formal Education:

- † Formal - California State University, San Marcos — Bachelor of Science, Computer Science (3.69 GPA)
- † Awards - 2001 statewide research and development award for developing StraightEdge (an online education tool) and emphasized studies in database modeling and physics.
- † Professional – 2016 Sustainable Business Award Member for the County of Sacramento
- † Community Involvement - Team Manager and President of the Fair Oaks Soccer Club, Team Coach 7 yrs.

Synopsis of Current and Past Work History:

ttechnicate

Project Manager/Compliance Officer

1999 – Present

- † Main roles include Software design, development, documentation, testing, maintenance
- † Development and management of new and current clients
- † Management of multiple, simultaneous web design and development projects
- † Implementation and management of staff programmers ranging from 3-5 programmers
- † Resolve and implement customer requests and modifications to work scope
- † Answer product and service questions, while directing staff to facilitate options regarding same
- † Effectively accomplishes programming projects by confirming program objectives and specifications
- † Development of software algorithm design, software performance tuning and architecture
- † Staff training and coaching
- † consulting for companies working on transitioning their systems to service oriented architecture (SOA) using existing APIs and newly introduced SOAP methods

Comtek Computer Systems, Inc. (Now COKEVA)
Applications Programmer and Implementation Lead
2003-2010

- † Developed in-house and external applications in support of the electronics repair industry
- † Developed an application that tracked all electronics board repairs, resulting in significant reduction in man-hours and resulting cost savings for the company.

Due to the continued success of this program it was subsequently launched as a program for outside clients such as HP, Intelliquote and Agilent Technologies.

IPC Printing Company

Lead Programmer

2002-2003

Developed an online ordering system that allows visitors to customize their print orders online, view invoices and make payments. The online application allowed customers to create custom business cards, stationery and other marketing material and order them online. Developed the company's web presence and managed all Microsoft Windows and Macintosh design infrastructure.

Technicate Computer Solutions

Owner

1999-2002

Technicate started in San Diego as a small web design and development firm. Developed websites consisting of HTML, PHP and connecting to various databases. Managed 2 employees that included one developer and designer. Designed multiple different websites for small and medium sized businesses.

US Navy

PRODUCTION CONTROL SUPERVISOR (E-5)

1996-1999

Production Control supervisor managing the administration and analysis of aircraft part repair. Programmed analytical software for tracking the failures and repairs of over 1000 different aircraft avionics per day. Supervised seven other administration personnel.

Home Office Location – 2999 Gold Canal Drive; Rancho Cordova, CA 95670 (PST)

Employee Status – Full-Time Regular Employee (partner)

Length of Time with Technicate – Since 1999