Empowering Digital Transformation || Co-Founder & CEO -
Primewayz || RentReadBuy
Gurugram, Haryana, India

Summary

With 12+ years of experience developing applications with different open source technologies and frameworks, I presently work as COO/CO-founder at Primewayz and RentReadBuy. Not only in analysis, designing, development, and implementation of diverse Internet/Intranet applications using JAVA and J2EE technologies, I cherish being into other renowned technologies such as JSP, Servlets, Spring, Hibernate, etc.

Besides being an Oracle-certified JAVA professional, my skills and working background also include experience in Python, Node, MEAN Stack, etc. I have a strong understanding of object-oriented concepts in complete software development with appropriate knowledge of gathering requirements, conceptual designing, analysis, detailed designing & development.

I've also developed, built, and deployed applications on JBoss, Apache Tomcat, and Nginx servers. Using my splendid analytical, problem-solving, and communication skills, I've built tools such as Maven, CI and worked with writing SQL queries, Stored Procedures with My SQL. Relational databases like Oracle and My SQL have also been a part of my prior working terms.

Setting up an IT business is more like my dream turned into a reality with my colleague, best buddy, and another COO/Co-founder at Primewayz, @PriyankSrivastava. I still recognize the day we together thought of running a start-up, and today with a well-established Software Development & Digital Marketing company, it's remarkably incredible to be a CO-Founder of two renowned digital platforms, Primewayz and RentReadBuy.

Primewayz is a renowned and dependable IT business solution provider with a vast client portfolio and successful tech projects (including international and domestic projects) in India. At the same time, RentReadBuy is the fastest-growing online book rental store. It made me think about multiple new endeavors waiting for me outside the door. With a compatible IT business team, I am inquisitive about welcoming new opportunities and adding more successful projects to my achievements list.
