mQube's Cinematic Virtuoso

Hey there, I'm Maulin Makwana. At mQube, we weave visual tales that captivate and resonate, transforming the ordinary into the extraordinary. With over 17 years behind the camera, my journey has been about capturing moments that tell stories, whether on the bustling streets of Ahmedabad for a documentary or the controlled chaos of a film set. My passion? It's all about the art of seeing—the subtle play of light, the vibrancy of colors, and the narrative behind every frame.

From the early days, working on feature films like Shikaar and Haunted House, to directing the visual narrative for Gujarati cinema's Shikaar 2 and the tech-savvy thriller Stranger on Whatsapp, my career has been a kaleidoscope of experiences. Each project has been a brushstroke on my canvas, teaching me the nuances of storytelling through the lens. Beyond the realm of cinema, my expertise has also illuminated promotional campaigns for renowned hotels and industries, where every shot is a blend of precision and artistry, telling stories of places and experiences.

Behind the Scenes at mQube

At mQube, my role transcends traditional cinematography. I'm the eyes of our projects, ensuring that every frame speaks a thousand words, every color tells a story, and every shot is a masterpiece in its own right. From overseeing the production and post-production processes to mentoring budding talents and managing the creative workflow, my job is to ensure that our visual storytelling is unmatched. I dive into the world of advanced editing and color grading, where technology meets creativity, crafting visuals that not only tell stories but also evoke emotions.

perfection in every frame, a philosophy I live by. My approach to cinematography is holistic, blending the technical with the creative, the factual with the imaginative. It's about more than just capturing images; it's about creating visual poetry that lingers in the mind long after the screen goes dark. My dedication to the craft, combined with a humble yet visionary outlook, enables me to lead our projects with a clarity and creativity that resonate with both our team and clients. In the ever-evolving landscape of media and entertainment, I'm committed to pushing the boundaries, exploring new horizons, and bringing the magic of cinema to life at mQube.
