

Cv. Miguel Angel Pereira Lopez

I am a professional with extensive experience in private security and team management. I stand out for my ability to plan strategies, my initiative and proactivity, as well as my leadership and negotiation skills. I have implemented effective measures for risk reduction and asset protection.

Work History

Director

Permont Group | Buenos Aires | Jan 2000 - Mar 2023

Director of Private Security, Ministry of Security of the Province of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

- Diploma in Asset Security, Federal Police University Institute of Argentina.
- Diploma in Security in Urban Developments, National Technological University, Argentina.
- Chief Security Officer (CSO), ASIS International.
- Forensic Analyst CVSA, NITV, USA.
- Principal Investigator for Physical Frauds.
- Coordination and supervision of security personnel.
- Conducting talks and training sessions on security-related topics.
- Assigning tasks to staff and scheduling work shifts.
- Writing periodic security reports for management.
- Development, implementation, and supervision of contingency plans.
- Creation and updating of security management documents such as policies and procedures.
- Monitoring the proper functioning of security equipment and systems.
- Validation and supervision to ensure that security measures are applied correctly.
- Management of personnel authorizations and access control.
- Follow-up on incident reports or non-conformities.
- Proposing improvements in security strategies and procedures.
- Expert handling of CCTV systems and alarms.
- Recruitment, hiring, and training of personnel.
- Coordination and direction of staff during security interventions and emergencies.
- Evaluation of the effectiveness of implemented security measures and risk reduction.
- Design and proposal of preventive measures for risk reduction.
- Organization and execution of frequent operational security inspections.
- Collaboration with law enforcement in cases of incidents.
- Implementation, management, and control of the execution of the company's security plans.
- Review and update of security procedures in accordance with current regulations.

- Updating records and reports of shifts, highlighting routine activities and exceptional circumstances.
  - Use of radios, phones, and digital means to communicate with other team members.
  - Visible presence on the premises to mitigate criminal activities and general misconduct.
  - Protection of assets by conducting frequent patrols around the facilities.
  - Administration of basic first aid to injured or ill individuals.
  - Monitoring entrances and exits of buildings to detect intruders and protect assets.
  - Activation of alarms and communication with relevant authorities in case of emergencies.
  - Use of appropriate strategic responses for different types of issues.
  - Warning communication to offenders and escorting unauthorized individuals out of the premises.
- Investigation Services: I conducted honesty investigations in Human Resources for well-known companies such as Brinks, Prosegur, Securitas, Maco, Maco Litoral, and Ducit.
  - Direction of Investigations: I supported and led investigations in the private and governmental sectors in Uruguay and Argentina, contributing to the improvement of security processes and organizational trust.
  - International Speaker: I have been a speaker at international conferences, addressing topics related to Asset and Corporate Security, sharing knowledge and best practices with industry professionals.
  - Teaching: I serve as an instructor in certification courses for the Certified Protection Professional (CPP) from ASIS International, training future leaders in the field of security.